During this month, Pope Francis invites people of good will to come together and pray:

That today’s families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance.

Let us pray:

Lord, help us understand that the family is the most precious thing that we have. Help us to forgive and to treat our families with respect and to support them so that they will strengthen their love for each other.

Hands on:

I try to place my family first and foremost and treat her as the most precious thing in the world. During this month I try to support and help a family that I know.
